

RIGHTEOUS RIDES HUBS GIVE GRACE

Janice Phillips and Cheryl McCullough leaving for LaFayette

Don't miss out on the Righteous Rides t-shirt extravaganza this summer! Keep an eye out for posts on social media about our new Gospel Gearhead Garage righteousrides.org/shop/

GOING THE EXTRA MILE

By: Janice Phillips, Righteous Rides Volunteer from South Carolina

The email from the missionary read, "Our flight from Europe landed in Houston late last night, and then we had to ride over three hours to Lafayette, LA. We're so exhausted I don't think it'll be safe for us to drive the van today. Can we go over to Slidell tomorrow?"

My traveling buddy, Cheryl McCullough, and I were in Slidell, learning about the workings of a Righteous Rides hub, when Hub Coordinator Tina Byus got the email. She knew we were heading west the next day and would be near this exhausted missionary family in Lafayette.

So Cheryl and I shifted gears and took the van directly to the missionaries' front door instead of having them drive to Slidell. What a blessing to hand over the keys, see their kids' faces light up when they received their goodie bags, and pray with them prior to our leaving.

It was the best training we could have received on how a hub works and gives grace in extenuating circumstances.

We certainly sensed God's timing in it all!
