

THOUGHTS FROM TWO SUMMER INTERNS

The Righteous Rides Missouri team with 2022 interns in front of the World Brew Café'.

As we mentioned in last month's newsletter, the Righteous Rides (RR) Summer Intern Program runs for about three months and is certainly a boon to the ministry. This year we have five interns. What a great investment in these students' lives as well as energizing the Righteous Rides staff! We asked all of the interns to tell us some of their thoughts on their internship. Last month we featured thoughts from three of our interns; this month we hear from the other two. Enjoy!

Asa Handy, a sophomore at LeTourneau University, is a dual major in Christian Ministries and Communications. This is his first year with RR and he has enjoyed seeing the ways he has been able to serve throughout the summer: from making missionaries a cup of coffee, to building relationships with people in the community, to teaching people about the ministry. "One of my favorite things I am learning through this internship is how to choose joy. God is teaching me daily how to choose His joy and focus on Him! Also, working with a team has been a great way to improve my communication and critical thinking skills, both important for a career in missions or business. Finally, one of the best things has been the chance to build relationships with other young people who love the Lord. All this has been refreshing and helps me strive to learn more about the Lord!"

Bailey Frye, a junior at LeTourneau University, is a dual major in Theology and an Interdisciplinary Studies major in Education. As a native from Austin, Texas, Bailey brings a little Yee-Haw to the internship. "I have loved working at Righteous Rides because I have been able to serve missionaries and co-workers in the café, giving me opportunities to practice becoming more like Christ. It has been a process of sanctification to be sure. I am also learning how to become a good team member and a leader. Because of that I now have more confidence in my people and customer service skills which will help me in the future as an active member in my church, and the community. I have really enjoyed becoming a member of the Righteous Rides community and feel like I have a home here. That is so awesome, but it will make it so hard to leave. Finally, my favorite thing that I have learned this summer is my favorite drink is a vanilla cold brew latte.

Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father. Col. 3:17 NASB
