Showing Care Through Hospitality

Earlier this year our Los Angeles hub had a family of five who at the last moment had to cancel their van reservation. The hub team had already put together goody bags for their three young elementary aged girls including monogrammed items with each of the girl's names. “What a delight it was to invite them to our home to receive the gifts even though we weren’t going to release a van to them. It was like Christmas morning at our house that day! The parents’ facial expressions seemed to say, thank you for loving our children!” ~ Los Angeles RR Hub Coordinator

Just recently we had the joyous and unexpected opportunity to invite a missionary family of seven into our home for the afternoon on the day they picked up their van. The family let us know they needed a place to iron clothes, eat a simple meal, and brush teeth before heading to a speaking engagement. Although it was an unexpected opportunity, it turned out to be a rich blessing to provide hospitality!

Our Charlotte, NC, hub coordinator shared, “A missionary family of four serving in Japan arrived stateside and discovered their email account was locked. It was a relief for them to be able to step inside our home to work out the issue. It was an unexpected, lovely time together to sit and visit!”
