

FROM THE RIGHTEOUS RIDES TEAM

Merry Christmas
December 2024

Christmas on home assignment...

The core celebration of Christmas is the same no matter where we are in the world. How it looks is much different. In the country where we serve, December is a month of slowing down; many people go back to their families' home places. As expat workers, we experience this as a time to connect with close friends and coworkers who step in as family. The celebratory foods are different from what we grew up with in America, partially due to availability of specific items. Have you ever needed to make caramel from scratch for a pie?

Beyond the celebration of the Messiah's incarnation, the thing that we want every Christmas is to gather with family, so the chance to do so in person every three or four years makes it all the more special for us. Thanks to Righteous Rides and those who support them, travel is easier this year, and we will get to hug and cozy up to a fire with our family. -Kenyan Missionary doing around the world.*

Thank You for joining with us in ministering to His servants!

shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.*
